ALMA MATER

Dear to our hearts is our Alma Mater
Loyal and true are we;
Truest devotion till life is ended,
Wholly we pledge to thee.

Tho' from thy halls far away we wander,
Thoughts back to thee will fly;
And tender mem'ries time cannot sever,
Love that will never die.

Heaven's choicest blessings ever attend thee,
Dear Alma Mater mine—
No shadows harm thee, no fears alarm thee,
Always the sunshine thine.

And tho' we leave thee, we'll never grieve thee,
True to our trust we'll be;
Our best endeavor, now and forever,
Always to honor thee.

—Mrs. Charles Sullivan, Sr.

A MESSAGE TO STUDENTS AND PARENTS

In any community, certain policies and regulations are necessary for the good of all. Anderson College is a community of predominantly Christian young men and women in pursuit of knowledge. This community, too, has found it necessary to establish policies of conduct for its citizens.

Not all students would be happy at Anderson College. Many young people would prefer a large university atmosphere with less restrictions. Those who prefer such an atmosphere are encouraged not to enroll at Anderson College.

Anderson College is owned and supported by the South Carolina Baptist Convention. Every effort is made to maintain an environment conducive to Christian education. Anderson College believes Christian education comes to pass as well-trained dedicated Christian teachers teach motivated Christian students in an atmosphere of reverence for all truth.

Every student should bring to college a growing Christian faith, a Bible for daily reading, and integrity of character which will cause him to form and follow right habits.

To this high purpose, the administration, staff, and faculty welcome all students, those enrolling for the first time and those who are returning.

THE HONOR CODE

Self-government can be successful only when founded on personal honor. Personal honor requires that every student act honorably in academic work as well as in every other phase of college life. It is the duty of every student to uphold the ideals and regulations of the college through his or her own personal conduct. A student is bound by his personal honor to report to the Student Council any violation which he has committed.

HONOR PLEDGE

Upon my personal honor, I do solemnly pledge, that, I will faithfully uphold the principles of the Honor Code of the student body of Anderson College.

I pledge to help my fellow students by calling to their attention any action or attitude that will jeopardize the Honor Code or that will weaken the system of self-government.

I further pledge that in case this fails, I will report the infraction to the proper authority.

I make this pledge with my fellow students to signify my determination to help keep our Honor Code, maintain self-government, and to hold my own personal honor sacred.

I understand that this is in accord with the agreement which I signed when making application for admittance to Anderson College.

The President of the College is authorized by the Board of Trustees to request the withdrawal of any student whose presence in the College, for reasons of health, conduct, or scholarship, does not meet with the approval of the Administration, or whose influence, whether by word or deed, is injurious to other students or to the welfare of the institution.

It is the duty of every student, all staff and faculty members to hand the President of the Student Government Association a written report concerning any student whom they see violate any regulation.

At the beginning of each semester the Handbook will be carefully explained to all students. After a thorough study, a comprehensive test will be given. Each student will sign the Honor Code and Honor Pledge at this time.

Parents are notified when students are guilty of any major offense. In order to prevent careless infraction of the rules and regulations at the end of the school year, the infractions will be handled by the Faculty members of the Student-Faculty Committee according to the seriousness of the offense.

HISTORY

Anderson College traces its origin to one of the first institutions ever established for the higher education of women in the United States. This institution was an antebellum academy, the Johnson Female Seminary, opened in the village of Anderson in 1848. It is still remembered in the City of Anderson, and the names of many of the older families of the community are to be found in surviving class rolls of the old seminary.

During the Civil War, Johnson Female Seminary was forced to close, and subsequently the stress of the times prevented its reopening. But the spirit of education enterprise lived on in the community, and in time a new generation of men and women arose to carry on where the old institution had left off. The outcome of their efforts is the present Anderson College. Its foundations were laid in 1911; and since its opening in the fall of 1912, it has held a place among the recognized colleges in the State of South Carolina.

TRANSITION TO A JUNIOR COLLEGE

Anderson College, which since 1912 had functioned as a senior or four-year type college, assumed a new role in the educational program of the state by opening in September 1930, as a junior college. The decision to reorganize as a junior college was made in 1929, and in that year the change was ratified by the Baptist State Convention, which sponsors and supports Anderson College.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

It is the policy at Anderson College that all student clubs, organizations and publications will have a faculty sponsor who will meet with the group any time it is in session.

BEGINNING YOUR ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Orientation

Your college career should begin well, continue well, and end well. The college provides a comprehensive program of orientation to college life. The college year will begin with a week of freshman orientation, testing, advising and guidance. August 21 through 27 is set aside to acquaint the new student with the college and to enable him to make the best possible adjustment to this new experience. Orientation is as much a part of the semester's work as is the week of examinations which concludes it. Students are required to complete the orientation program because it is designed to enhance chances of scholastic success.
